Vlees & Co

From an underperforming agency to +44% click growth in 4 months

Vlees & Co were stuck with flat rankings and traffic despite paying an external SEO agency.

With WP SEO AI, they launched a bilingual content engine publishing 80 optimised blogs per month in Dutch and English around “premium meat” and “steakhouse Amsterdam” topics.

In just 4 months, total clicks grew 44% (2,416 ⟶ 3,477) and WP SEO AI content clicks increased on average by 230% per month – without adding copywriters or SEO staff.

Challenge - Underperforming agency

Vlees & Co recognized that their current SEO efforts through an external agency are not delivering desired results, with stagnant keyword rankings and traffic despite investments.

So they were seeking an automated AI-driven solution that can deliver qualitative content with consistency while saving time by replacing the need for analysts, copywriters, and SEO marketers for simple writing work and monitoring.

WP SEO AI's - Approach

We implemented a bilingual content strategy, publishing 40 optimized blogs per month in both Dutch and English (80 total), focused on premium meat preparation and steakhouse Amsterdam questions.

Using WP SEO AI's automated workflow, we deployed 320 articles across 4 months targeting topic clusters around premium meat expertise and local Amsterdam visibility.
