

Maessen Tent Supply

From low online visibility to a €37K customer lead in year 2

Maessen Tent Supply, a specialist provider of temporary tent structures, wanted to grow beyond a new website with almost no organic visibility.

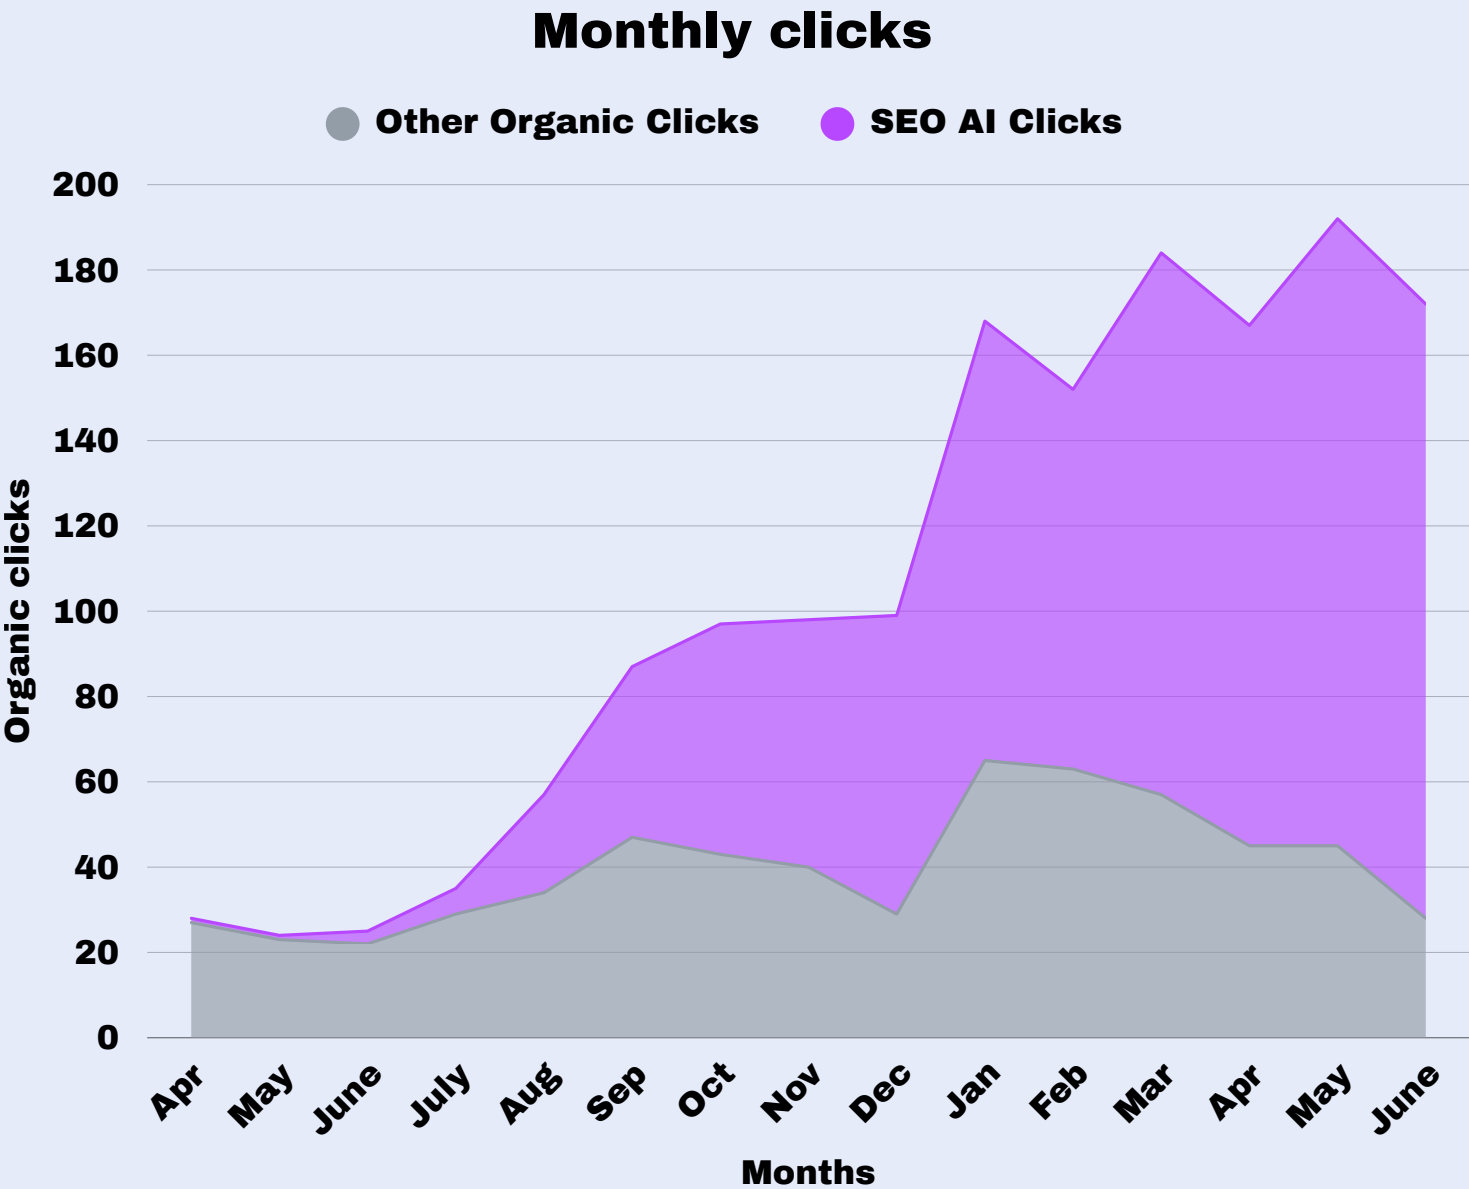

WP SEO AI developed a niche B2B SEO strategy focused on high-intent topics such as tent permits and temporary infrastructure, helping buyers find reliable, permit-compliant answers online.

Within months, organic clicks grew from 28 in April to 172 in June (+514%), with around 83% of traffic driven by WP SEO AI content and one ChatGPT-generated lead turning into a €37,000 customer deal.

“Through our collaboration WP SEO AI, we picked up a lead from a client who found us via ChatGPT. It was a request for a tent structure to serve as a temporary showroom for cars. The structure is now built, and it turned into a great project that was well worth the investment in GEO.”

Case Study

Challenge - SEO Burnout

Maessen Tent Supply launched with a new website and almost no organic footprint, just 26 clicks in their first month. With a new domain, zero authority, and a narrow niche where search volume on the obvious keywords was thin, growth felt out of reach.

The company had invested in an SEO agency hoping to change that. But months passed with no results. Budget was draining with nothing to show for it, and the team was growing frustrated. They needed a solution that could find real opportunity in a niche market, not just run through the standard playbook.

WP SEO AI's - Approach

WP SEO AI started by testing content around temporary tents and tent structures. When traffic was low, we explored adjacent topic clusters.

The breakthrough came from a high-traffic topic with real commercial intent: permits for temporary tent structures. Buyers were actively searching this, and Maessen had the expertise to answer.

Content was built around this permit cluster, quickly establishing credibility. From there, blogs expanded into related topics, growing the site's footprint. Traffic followed and kept accelerating.
