

TFX Suspension

From limited visibility to 3,743 monthly clicks and a clear rise in inquiries

TFX Suspension Technology, founded by motorcycle enthusiasts Hans-Dieter and Alex, wanted to grow their online visibility so they could help more riders get the most out of every ride with custom-made suspension systems built from true passion for motorcycles.

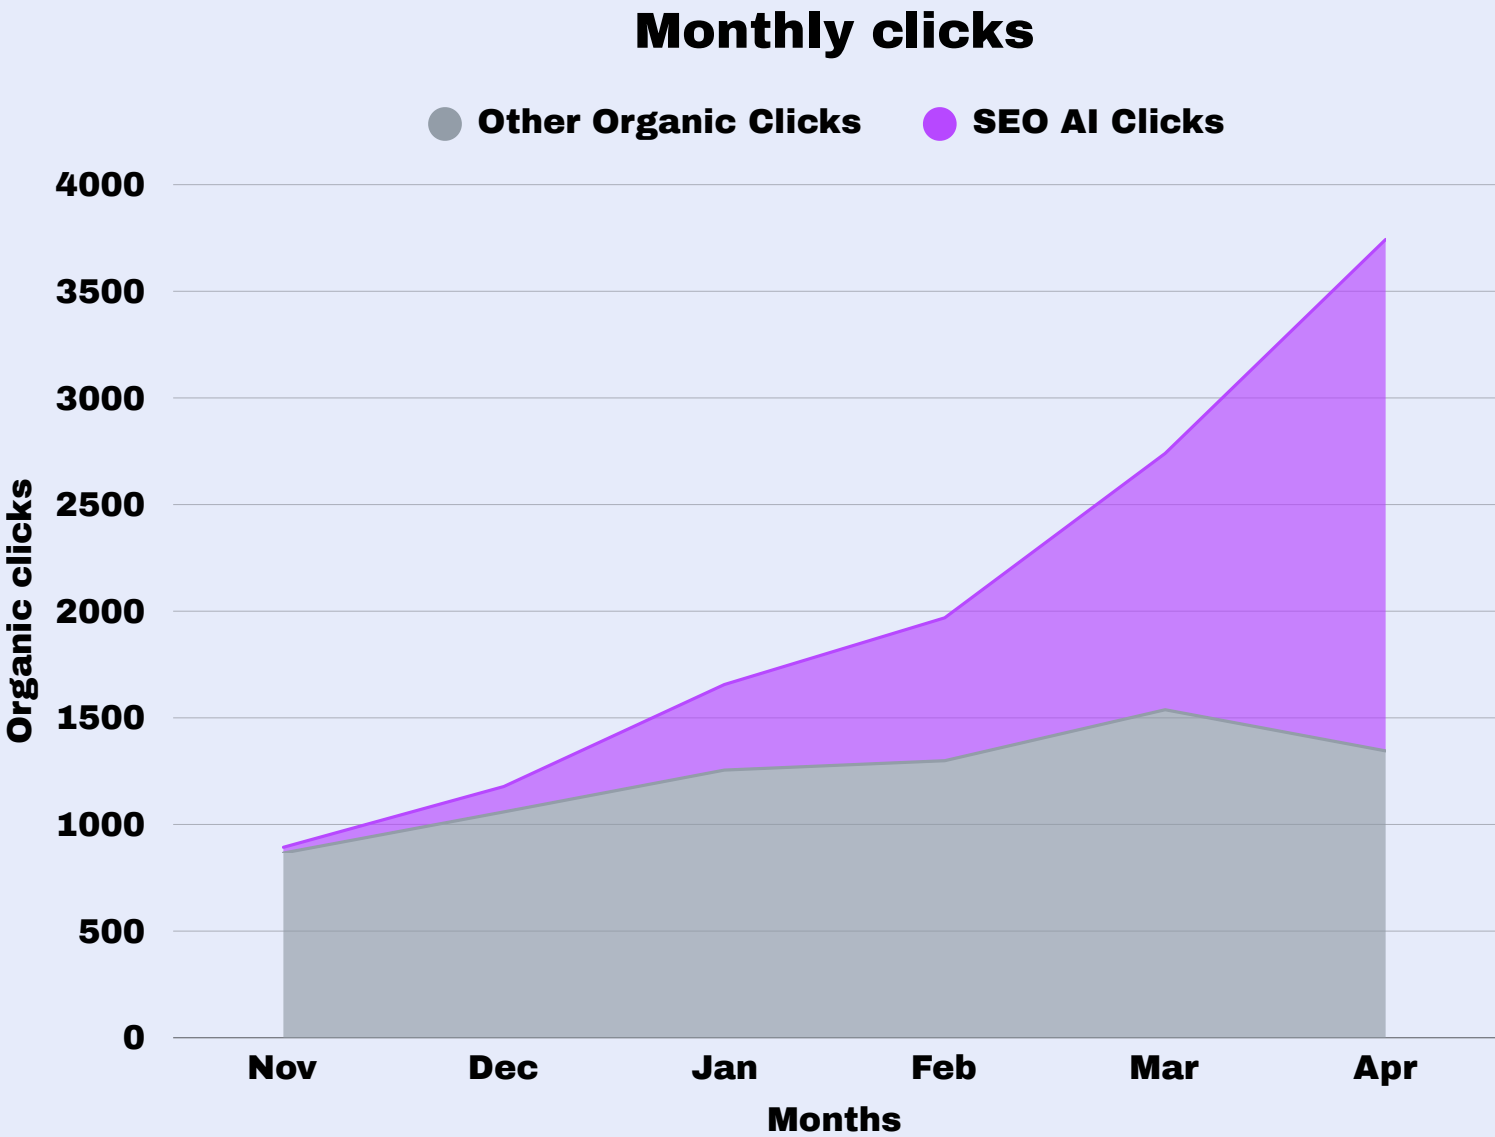

WP SEO AI built a targeted SEO strategy that first created awareness with broad motorcycle content, then published more specific pages designed to convert.

Within 6 months, monthly organic clicks rose from 893 to 3,743 (+319%), giving TFX a far stronger digital presence and supporting growth in traffic, engagement, and online sales.

“We notice the traffic coming in from all sides. You can see the numbers. We have been at it for a few months now, and we genuinely notice more activity on the website and more inquiries coming in. WP SEO AI takes care of the front end, and that is going well. We both believe this is the way to go!”

Case Study

Challenge - Too little time for SEO

TFX Suspension had almost no SEO strategy in place, the only people finding their website were those who already knew the brand, leaving new customers virtually unreachable. Hans-Dieter noticed this firsthand when searching for suspension products on Google and ChatGPT, with TFX nowhere to be found.

On top of that, most riders simply do not think about their suspension, meaning TFX first needs to build awareness. With a new website about to go live and limited budget for large upfront investments, they knew it was time to find the right partner to help.

WP SEO AI's - Approach

We started broad, publishing blogs about adventure bike maintenance to attract riders not yet thinking about suspension. As that content gained traction, we narrowed the focus toward suspension advice and tips, eventually zeroing in on the specific motorcycle models TFX sells the most systems for.

Every blog closes with a personal paragraph on TFX's strengths and internal links to key product pages, ensuring every piece of content is built with conversion in mind. With WP SEO AI, we now publish 50 English per month also-asked blogs per month, building authority at every stage of the rider's journey.
